Close-Reading Questions

Refer to this week’s cover story, “Keeping the Dream Alive,” to respond to the questions below. Reread the article to find details that support your answers. Remember to write in complete sentences.

1. How was life different for many African Americans in the 1950s and 1960s? Include specific examples.

2. How does the text structure of the interview differ from that of other nonfiction articles?

3. What issues are important to Yolanda Renee King? How is she making a difference?

4. What advice does Yolanda give to other kids?